IN REMOVAL PROCEEDINGS

APPEAL

ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: Rhett Dennerline, Esquire

ON BEHALF OF DHS: Karen E. Lundgren
Assistant District Counsel

APPLICATION: Asylum

ORDERM:

PER CURIAM.. This case is presently before us pursuant to the (b) (6) decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the (b) (6). The court found that the Immigration Judge erred in placing the burden on the respondent to show a well-founded fear of persecution in Kosovo, after finding that he suffered past persecution there. It remanded the case to the Board for consideration of current evidence regarding country conditions in Kosovo, and for "an individualized determination as to whether Balliu's particular fear of persecution should be allayed by improvements in the political conditions in Kosovo."

Although the court remanded this case to the Board, we find that a further remand to the Immigration Judge is appropriate, to give the parties the opportunity to present evidence on current country conditions, and to allow the Immigration Judge to determine in the first instance whether the government can meet its burden of rebutting the presumption that the respondent has well-founded fear of persecution if returned to Kosovo. 8 C.F.R. § 1208.13(b)(1)(ii). We also note that the last hearing in this case was held well over 4 years ago.

Accordingly, the record is remanded to the Immigration Judge for further proceedings consistent with this decision and with the decision of the court.
